Narkis Street Congregation's Bible Readings for 2026-2027 (Jewish Year 5787)

"If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead." Luke 16:31

Every Shabbat morning, the Narkis Street Congregation in Jerusalem reads from the weekly Torah portion (Parashat haShavua)—from the five books of Moses, accompanied by a passage from the Prophets (Haftara). A similar tradition was observed by Jesus and his early followers (Luke 4:16-17; Acts 13:15; 17:2) and continues to be a part of contemporary Jewish practice.

At our congregation, we have added New Testament readings which complement the Torah portions. We have included Christian holy days to celebrate Jesus the Messiah, our spiritual center. Both Ashkenazi and Sephardic Haftara versions are included, the latter in parentheses if different. This list is according to the Israeli schedule.

How to read: Begin reading Gen 1:1-6:8 on Sunday, Oct 4 and finish by Saturday (Shabbat), Oct 10, when it is read in the synagogue.
